On a search being made in the old records and the indexes pertaining to the period, after looking into it was traced to Cir No.7 dt 23-2-1849 and Chief Commr's notification No 211 dt 16-1-1868. The first circular prohibits private servants to wear badges, and the C. Cs Notn prohibits servants and retainers of private persons from wearing badges similar to those in use with the Govt servants, except under the authority of the Magistrate duly obtained in writing.

3 It is also based to No 49 dt 8-7-1848 re badges and belts to be used by the servants of the Munsif Matt. This reference may be perhaps available in the Mysore Commissioner's office.
